Society in Centralia

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CENTRALIA, VA., September 29.—The Salem public school will be opened Monday, October 1st, with Charles A. Fauser as principal. There has been some minor improvements made to the school building, and it is a very comfortable building now.

The Rev. Mr. Grover, of Henrico county, will preach at Bolin's Hall Sunday afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock.

P. O. Bertrand left Monday for New York, where he will spend a few days.

Mrs. Martin, of Memphis, Tenn., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas S. Wheelwright, at "Buckhead Springs."

Miss Grace Shumway went to Port Walthall recently for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Mary C. Damon left the past week for Lewisburg, W. Va., to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Dwyer.

Mrs. John Malary has returned to her home in Manchester, after spending a few days in the village among friends.

Mrs. E. B. Clement left last week for Alexandria to attend the convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, she being treasurer, after which she will go to Lincoln, and spend a few days with Mrs. Hoge, president of the association.

Mr. John Haw left recently over the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation line for Boston, where he will spend about two weeks on vacation.

M. P. DuVal, of Norfolk, is the guest of Miss Alice G. DuVal, his sister, near here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, after spending several days at the home of R. W. Haw, returned to her home in Richmond last week.

T. N. Allen, of Richmond, was a guest at the home of Henry Lyne recently.

Mrs. H. M. Swallow, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting Mrs. C. B. Swallow, in the village, this week.

Mrs. Albert Fetter visited friends in Manchester recently.

The attractive dwelling-house now under construction by Mr. W. Y. Carlton, in West Centralia, is nearing completion, and will be one of the most attractive houses in the village, notwithstanding the one completed by Mr. Edward H. Chalkley a few weeks ago, which is also a "star."

Arthur A. Brumage, of Richmond, was in the village Friday on business.

Mr. L. L. Cannon made a business trip to Petersburg recently.

Miss Nellie Haw is visiting friends in Richmond this week.

Midlothian Society

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MIDLOTHIAN, VA., September 29.—Mrs. E. M. Hall has been the guest of her daughters, Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Bailey, for several weeks.

Miss Kitty Eastman, who is attending school in Manchester, spent Sunday with her mother here.

Fred Eastman left last week to attend the Fork Union Academy.

Miss Lula Powell opened school here Monday with a very large attendance.

Misses Nellie and Ada Powell have been the guest of friends here for some time.

Miss Gussie Sims is the guest of Miss Emma G. Winfree.

Misses Margaret and Annie Hodspeith returned home Sunday, after spending a week with their cousin, Miss Bellamy, of Powhatan.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. Morton and Mrs. R. M. Bullington were the guests

Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bellamy, of Newkirk.

Miss Edith La Prade opened her school at the brick school house Monday.

New Bank at West Point.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WEST POINT, VA., September 29.—Another bank will be established here in the near future. Mr. R. L. Blair, of Richmond, manager of the subscription department of the Southern Interstate Bank, of Richmond, Va., has been in town several times looking stock for a branch to be established in West Point. He has secured an option on a very desirable lot on the main business street, and if the bank is established will at once erect a brick building.

Salem Social

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MONTEREY, VA., September 29.—What may be, to some of them at least, a last look at the McDowell battle-field was taken by several old veterans on Wednesday last. The visit was made at the request of Mr. Washington Snyder, a native of Highland, but for many years a resident of the far West. During the past two months he has been visiting the scenes and haunts of early life. Having participated in the battle of McDowell, his visit to the field was made more pleasant and memorable by the presence of several of his old comrades in arms, the number of which is so rapidly diminishing.

Mr. Seabrook McClung, of Clover Creek, this county, while gathering apples Tuesday afternoon, fell from an apple tree and was rendered unconscious for more than twenty feet, but no bones were broken, and his injuries proved less serious than at first reported.

An automobile party, consisting of Messrs. Apperson and Miller and families, of Staunton, made a tour of Highland and Pendleton this week, spending one night at Hotel Monterey.

Mr. H. C. Lunsford, of Monterey, who is giving some attention to fine horses, has just purchased a fine buckeye filly from a horseman near Berryville.

A government official has this week been inspecting Highland's one rural free delivery route with a view to granting some desired changes in same. The proposed change will lengthen the route some four miles, taking in the Frank's Run settlement in lower Crabbottom, and will curtail two star routes.

Keysville School.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

KEYSVILLE, VA., September 29.—The Keysville Graded School opened Monday with about 90 students in their new building, which is equipped with all modern conveniences. The musical department is under the charge of Miss Lillian Moore. Professor H. C. Kuffin is the principal of the school.

The Keysville Bank has commenced work on their two-story brick building. It will be a double one, one side being used by the bank and the balance as a store.

News of Tappahannock

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

TAPPAHANNOCK, VA., September 29.—The quiet, old town of Tappahannock has been filled to overflowing this summer with summer boarders from Washington, Richmond, Baltimore, in fact, from almost every section of the country. They find the old town very quiet and very beautiful, the abundant artesian water and the high social standing of its people making it a sparkling gem by the side of the beautiful blue waves of the old Rappahannock.

Misses Helen and Bertha Latane have a fine preparatory school here for young ladies, and Professor Beatty has a large private school for boys. To these he added the high school just started here, which makes the old town quite an educational centre.

A crowd has been thrown over the town by the announcement of the death of Miss Ethel McDaniel, of Richmond, on the 27th. She was a native of Tappahannock and the granddaughter of Judge Thomas Crockett, former Congressman of the First District.
